

Nondiscrimination and Accessibility Requirements: Discrimination is Against the Law

Union Hospital complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. Union Hospital does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex.

Union Hospital provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as qualified interpreters and information written in other languages

If you need these services ask your caregiver or contact Darwin Smith, Civil Rights Coordinator.

If you believe that Union Hospital has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with: Darwin Smith, Civil Rights Coordinator, 659 Boulevard, Dover, OH 44622, telephone number: 330-364-0802, FAX: 330-364-0951, Email: darwins@unionhospital.org. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, Darwin Smith, Civil Rights Coordinator, is available to help you.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
